

Melting Minds
Isolation Years

<http://www.isolationyears.com>

ISOLATION YEARS
Melting Minds
Transcribed by Linus Fanger
email: linus@jolian.se off the brilliant album Inland Traveller from one of the great Swedish bands. Listen to the song and don't forget to work your pinkie finger in the obvious places to imitate the organ. Gives the song a fuller sound.

Intro: E

Verse 1

E where is it now
E A
that feeling you said it would blow my mind E hours and weeks
E A
are we afraid of getting old C#m B
this is our chance to be in it all C#m B
here it is creeping and crawling under your skin
A E
will you let it in no

Chorus

A E
the days are getting longer and longer again
B C#m
when spring comes it eases the pain
A
there ain't no such thing as bad weather
E though I know it could be better B C#m A E
so put on your coat your smile

Verse 2

E

where is it now

E

A

the times when we did what we wanted to

E

through hours and weeks

E

A

when will we learn to dig where we stand

C#m

B

this is the place that we call our home

C#m

B

here it is waiting for us to be in it all

A

E

will you let it in no

Chorus

Bridge

Am, B

Am, B

C#m, B, E

C#m, B, A, E

Chorus