In This Life chords for acoustic guitar
Israel Kamakawiwo ole

Capo II *

A

A   D
For all I ve been blessed with in my life
E   A
There was an emptiness in me
                              D
I was imprisoned by the power of gold
E   A
With one kind touch you set me free

A   D   E
Let the world stop turning
           A   D
Let the Sun stop burning
                                        E   E7
Let them tell me love s not worth going through
        D   E
If it all falls apart
          A   D
I will know deep in my heart
                                      E   E7
The only dream that mattered had come true
          D   E7 E   A
In this life I was loved by you

A D A

A   D
For every mountain I have climbed
E   A
Every raging river crossed
                              D
You were the treasure that I longed to find

E                              A
Without your love I would be lost

Let the world stop turning
           A         D
Let the Sun stop burning
                                          E              E7
Let them tell me love s not worth going through
       D           E
If it all falls apart
         A                 D
I will know deep in my heart
                                      E   E7
The only dream that mattered had come true
         D           E7 E      A
In this life I was loved by you

G                          D
I know that I will live forever
         A                 E  E7
But forever I ll be loving you

D E A  D E D E

Let the world stop turning
           A         D
Let the Sun stop burning
                                          E              E7
Let them tell me love s not worth going through
       D           E
If it all falls apart
         A                 D
I will know deep in my heart
                                      E   E7
The only dream that mattered had come true
         D           E7 E      A
In this life I was loved by you

         D           E7 E      A
In this life I was loved by you
