

Breathing

Itchy Poopzkid

Em G
Who can you count on and whose smile can you trust now

D Am
Ignorance is bliss, the dumb ones never miss

Em G
anything at all, but I m not jealous somehow,

D Am
tonight I m fine with me and so grateful to see

C G
I breathe in and these walls keep crashing down

Em D
But they won t get me cause I learned how to set me free and

C G
I breathe in and my feet are losing ground

Em D
But I ll find the door cause I know what I m fighting for

Em G
Rage and hate rotate while I put on my best shoes

D Am
I d better tie them well- the floor is rough in hell

Em G
Let s unearth the truth and I refrain from laughter

D Am
I d rather face the facts than to paper over the cracks

C G
I breathe in and these walls keep crashing down

Em D
But they won t get me cause I learned how to set me free and

C G
I breathe in and my feet are losing ground

Em D
But I ll find the door cause I know what I m fighting for

I know what I m fighting for

C G
Don t forget to breathe out

Em D
There s something in the air that fills me with despair

C G
But no need to pipe down

Em D
Inhale and sing along; I will get it done

C G
I breathe in and these walls keep crashing down

Em D
But they won't get me cause I learned how to set me free and

C G
I breathe in and my feet are losing ground

Em D
But I'll find the door cause I know what I'm fighting for
