A really great song by It s alive. I m not sure if it s right on at the bridge part, but the rest seems(and sounds) correct.

[Intro]:
Dm   Am
Dm   Am
Dm   Am
F   C

[Verse 1]
   Dm   Am   Dm   Am
I m breathing, guess I m still alive
      Dm   Am   F   C
But I m sinking in your eyes tonight
   Dm   Am   Dm   Am
I m shaking cause I miss the high
   Dm   Am   F   C   Dm – C – Dm – F – Dm – C – Dm – F
I m regretting that we let this feeling die

[Chorus 1]:
     A#   C   Dm
Well, if I could change my ways I would
(I would)
      A#   C   Dm
You know that I d stop these thoughts if I could
(if I could)

          G
But what makes matters worse
       Am
I m missing you more
      A#   C
I filtered you out, cutting the cord
  A#   C   Dm – C – Dm – F
Dialysis is goodbye

[Verse 2]:
   Dm Am   Dm   Am
I m dozing, cause I had you in a dream
     Dm   Am   F   C

Now I m craving you in my blood stream
Dm   Am      Dm        Am
Maybe if I keep real still
     Dm      Am                F         C          Dm - C - Dm - F - Dm - C - Dm - F
You might see me when you look for something real

[Chorus 2(Same as the first one)]:
           A#                C        Dm
Well, if I could change my ways I would
(I would)
             A#                C            Dm
You know that I d stop these thoughts if I could
(if I could)

                      G
But what makes matters worse
                Am
I m missing you more
             A#                   C
I filtered you out, cutting the cord
       A#    C     Dm - C - Dm - F
Dialysis is goodbye

[Bridge]
C                          Dm                        A#

You know that I d stop these thoughts if I could
(If I could)
