[Verse 1]

C
If I could wake my crooked heart
C
If I was there right from the start
F C
To feel what it was like to be turned on
C
If you could fight the battling wind
C
To miss the mark correct within
F C
If your wish came true, your dreams made real.

[Chorus]

Am C
Running for cover
Am C
Running to hide

[Verse 2]

C
If I could be the walls of man
C
To rest my head and trust the plan
F C
And fighting like a child to get my way
C
If I could see the garden place
C
Before the fall, would things have changed?
F /Gmaj

I wasn't there, and neither were you

F

C

But I take the blame, as you should too, my friend.

[Chorus]

Am G C

Now we're running for cover

Am G C

Running to hide

Am G C

Yeah, we're running for cover

Am G C

Running to hide

[Bridge]

Fm C
We've been trying with each other to unravel the age-old story

Fm C
But I'm starting to think that there's a reason we don't understand

Fm Gmaj Am

And it's easy to blame someone else for my wants and my worries

Fm C
But I know, I accept that it's just a part of who I am

[Chorus]

Am G C

Now we're running for cover

Am G C

Running to hide

Am G C

And you say it's not my problem

Am G C

Out of sight, out of mind

Am C

Yes, we're running for cover

Am G C

Yeah, we're running afraid

Am G Am

As we run with one another

Am G Am

Of the mess that we've made
