CLAUDIA Takes The Summerwind
1974 by Jack GRUNSKY (a Canadian Artist)

G C G C D
Claudia takes the summerwind and locks it in her mouth,
G D7 G C
Keeps it there for a long, long time,
G C G D
for a day, for a week but soon I d find,
G D7 G C G D7 G
she keeps it there for me.

G C G C D
Claudias eyes are restless, sometimes forget to see,
G D7 G C
The things I do, the words I say
G C G D
neverthere with the thoughts till suddenly,
G D7 G C G D7 G
Her eyes belong to me.

G C G C D
Claudias smile is endless, shows into the wealth,
G D7 G C
So sunlight seeds into a crowd
G C G D
And I know it s true and it makes me crow,
G D7 G C G D7 G
When the smiles reflects are me.

G C G C D
Claudias hands are soft and warm, she gives them free away,
G D7 G C

Holds on to someone near to her,

G C G D

There in the dark occasionally

G D7 G C G D7 G

She creeps up soft and touches me.

G C G C D
Claudia takes the summerwind and locks it in her mouth,

G D7 G C

Keeps it there for a long, long time,

G C G D

for a day, for a week which I could find,

G D7 G C G D7 G

my name within that wind.

Fade out....
