G
The light was leaving in the west it was blue
C G
The children s laughter sang
And skipping just like the stones they threw
C C
Their voices echoed across the way
D7
It s getting late

G F C
And it was just another night
D7 G
With a sunset and a moonrise
F C D7
Not so far behind to give us just enough light
G F C
To lay down underneath the stars
D7 G
We listened to papa s translations
F C
Of the stories across the skies
D7 G
We drew our own constellations

G
The west winds often last too long
C
And when they calm down, nothing ever
G
Feels the same
Sheltered under the Kamani tree
C G
Waiting for the passing rain
Clouds keep moving to uncover the sea
C G
Stars up above us chasing the day away
To find the stories that we sometimes need
C
Listen close enough and all else fades
D7
Fades away

G F C
And it was just another night
D7 G
With a sunset and a moonrise
F C D7
Not so far behind to give us just enough light
G F C
To lay down underneath the stars
D7
Listen to all translations
G F C
Of the stories across the sky
D7
We drew our own constellations
