

Go On

Jack Johnson

[Intro] E Bm F#m A

E

In my rear view

Bm

I watch you

F#m

Watching the twilight

A

Behind the telephone lines

E

With nothing to prove

Bm

Or to assume

F#m

Just thinking that your thoughts

Are different than mine

E Bm

In my rear view

Bm

I watch you

F#m

I gave you your life

A

But you give me mine

I see you slowly swim away

Bm

Cause the light is leaving town

F#m

To a place that I can't be

A

But there's no apologies

C#m

Just go on

Just go on

B

There's still so many things

A

I wanna to say to you

C#m

But go on

Just go on

B

We're bound by blood that's moving

From the moment that we start

C#m F#m

From the moment that we start

I see your perfect little eyes

Bm

Watch the shadows of the clouds

F#m

And the surface of the ocean

Out the window of a plane

E

I get nervous when I fly

Bm

I'm used to walking with my feet

F#m

Turbulence is like a sigh

That I can't help but overthink

E

What is the purpose of my life

Bm

If it doesn't have to do

F#m

With learning to let it go

A

Live vicariously through you

You can do the same

Bm

It's the least you can do

F#m

Cause it's a lonely little chain

A

If you don't add to it

C#m

So go on

Just go on

B

There's so many things

A

I wanna say to you

C#m

Go on

Just go on

B

We re bound by blood and love

A

From the moment that we start

C#m

Just go on

Just go on

B

There s still so many things

A

I wanna say to you

C#m

Just go on

Just go on

B

Were bound by blood that moving

A

From the moment that we start

C#m F#m

From the moment that we start

(E Bm F#m A)
