riff1
A brand new baby was born yesterday
            riff2
Just in time
riff1
Papa cried, baby cried
                          riff2
Said your tears are like mine
riff1
I heard some words
From a friend on the phone
                        riff2
That didnt sound so good
riff1
The doctor gave him two weeks to live

```
        riff3              riff3
Id give him more if I could

                    riff4
You know that I would now
              riff4
If only I could
                    riff4
You know that I would now
          riff1
If only I could

riff1
Down the middle drops one more
            riff2
Grain of sand    They say that riff1                                  riff2
New life makes losing life easier to understand
riff1                                          riff2
Words are kind they help ease the mind, I ll miss my old friend
riff1
And though you ve got to go we ll keep a piece of your soul
riff3                    riff4
One goes out, one comes in

                    riff4
You know that I would now
              riff4
If only I could
                    riff4
You know that I would now
          riff1
If only I could
