

Is One Moon Enough
Jack Johnson

[Intro] D

[Primeira Parte]

D

Is one moon enough

D

If I can see

G

With my cheap telescope?

E

G

Bet my neighbor has two or three

D

Down soon enough

D

What does it mean

G

If every time I look up

G

I see them

E

G

Laughing down on me?

[Refrão]

A

D

D

Take that moon or break across the sea

A

D

D

Everything I want s just out of reach

[Segunda Parte]

D

Is one moon enough

D

Well, it used to be

G

When I could see with my own naked eye

E

G

She was smiling down on me

D

Is one ever enough?

D

How could it ever be if my neighbor has more than me

G

And my moon

E

G

Just out of reach

[Refrão]

A G D D
Take that moon or break across the sea

A G D D
Everything I want is further from me

D D D
Hmm, hmm, hmm

D
Moon down soon enough

D
Now I can see a million moons that think of

G
Me and my moons

E G
Always following me

[Terceira Parte]

A G D D
Take that moon or break across the sea

A G D D
Everything I want is just out of reach (hmm, hmm)

A G D D
Why s that moon always following me? (hmm, hmm)

A G D D
Everything I want s just out of reach (hmm, hmm)

D D D
Hmm, hmm, hmm
