Riff 1

Everyone laughed at her joke
As if they d never even heard it before
And maybe they were truly amused
But every word that she spoke was a bore
And maybe it s because they had seen
The previews on the TV screen
Well this part is good and that s well understood
So you should laugh if you know what I mean

Riff 2

But it s all relative
Even if you don t understand

Riff 1

Well it s all understood
Especially when you don t understand

Riff 2

Then it s all just because
Even if we don t understand

Riff 3

Then lets all just believe

Riff 4

Everyone knows what went down
Because the news was spread all over town
And fact is only what you believe
And fact and fiction work as a team

Riff 5

It s almost always fiction in the end
That content begins to bend
When context is never the same

And it s all relative
Even if we don t understand
And that s well understood
Especially when we don t understand
Then it s all just because
Even if we don t understand

Riff 6

Then lets all just believe

I was reading a book
Or maybe it was a magazine
Suggestions on where to place faith
Suggestions on what to believe

Riff 7

But I read somewhere
That you ve got to beware
You can t believe anything you read
But the good Book is good
And that s well understood
So don t even question
If you know what I mean

Riff 8

But it s all relative
Even if you don t understand

Riff 1

Well it s all understood
Especially when you don t understand

Riff 9

And it s all just because
Even if we don t understand
Then lets all just believe

But there you go once again
You missed the point and then you point
Your fingers at me
And say that I said not to believe
I believe
I guess
I guess it s all relative
