[Primeira Parte]

C#m E B
When you were a little girl
A B E
And you were an ocean away from me
C#m E B
Didn t know what I wanted yet
A B E
But you were already listening to The Pixies

( C#m B E )

[Segunda Parte]

C#m E B
We were a little shy
A B E
When you were still an arm s length away from me
C#m E B
Didn t know what I wanted yet
A B E
But you were already reading beat poetry

( C#m B E )

[Terceira Parte]

C#m E B
We were a little free
A B E
When we were seven seas away from anything
C#m E B
Finally knew what I wanted then

A      B          E
But you were already my best friend
                  C#m          B          E
You had already become my best friend

( C#m B E )
( C#m B E )

[Quarta Parte]

                          C#m  E          B
When you were teaching geometry
                  A                  B                  E
We were both living off of your salary
                  C#m                  E                  B
I want to thank you for not kicking me out
                  A                          B                  E
I wanna thank you for letting me live in our house
                  C#m                          B                  E
I wanna thank you for letting me live in our house

( C#m B E )

[Ponte]

F#m          B                          E
  Finally we made a family
F#m                  B
  Make a little home then
G#m                          C#m  B
  fill it up with children
F#m                          B
  Never mind the rest it s all just
G#m                          C#m          B
  Irrelevant if we re just stardust
F#m                          B
  This dusty old world won t rest and
G#m                                  C#m          B          F#m
  These dusty little kids keep stretching high
                  B
Just like the tide

[Quinta Parte]

                          C#m                  E          B
When you were a little middle-aged like me
                  A                  B                  E
And we were already 15 love songs deep
                          C#m          E          B
You give me too much love, so I blame you
                  A          B          E
Well, here s another love song for you
                  C#m  E          B
You give me too much love, what can I do?

A B E

Well, here s another love song for you

C#m B E

Just another love song for you
