Rooftop Lullaby - Jack L

Em G
Mother, is there something in the sky....

A
Something up there that they hide....

C
A jewel for me and you,
Am A
Apple trees with fallen fruit....

Em
Oh daughter....

G
I don t know but I believe....
A
That its beauty s beyond words,
C
It s like a tune that I can t sing....
Am A
But I ve heard it sung by birds....

Chorus:

D
It s a rooftop lullaby....
A
Fallen from the sky....
G
Sends us to sleep tonight....
D
It s the apple in your eye....
A
Keeps you as sweet as pie...
G dreaming through the night....

Em
Oh father....
G
Won t you tell me if you know....
A
Where does half of the moon go,
C
When it s not up in the sky....
Am A
it disappears before my eyes....

Em

Oh my son....

G

Why does morning break each day....

A

Why do people pass away,

C

It s the mystery in truth....

Am

A

the innocence in youth....

Chorus:

D

Or a rooftop lullaby....

A

Fallen from the sky....

G

Sends us to sleep tonight....

D

It s the apple in your eye....

A

Keeps you as sweet as pie...

G

dreaming through the night....

D

Oh it s a rooftop lullaby....

A

Fallen from the sky....

G

Sends us to sleep tonight....
