This phrase is repeated at other times in the song, just listen to find out when

Verse:

Em          C          G          D
Running down around the town s along the shore
Em  C          G          D
I was sixteen and on my own
Em          C          G          D
Though I couldn t tell you what the hell those breaks were for
Em          C          G          D
I was just trying to hear my song

Em          C          G          D

Jimmy found his own sweet sound, when he won that free guitar
Em C G D
We d all get in the van and play
Em C G D
Life became the paradox, the bear, the rouge et noir
Em C G D
And a stretch of road running to L.A

Pre-Chorus:

Em C G D
Pages turning, pages we were years from learning
Em C G D
Straight into the night our hearts were flung

Chorus:

C G D C G D
Better bring your own redemption when you come
C G D C
To the barricades of heaven where I m from

Verse:

Em C G D
All the world was shining from those hills
Em C G D
The stars above and the lights below
Em C G D
Among those there to test their fortunes and their wills
Em C G D
I lost track of the score long ago

Pre-Chorus:

Em C G D
Pages turning, pages we were years from learning
Em C G D
Straight into the night our hearts were flung

Chorus:

C G D C G D
Better bring your own redemption when you come
C G D C
To the barricades of heaven where I m from

Bridge:

Em F C
Childhood comes for me at night
Em F C
Voices of my friends
Em F C
Your face bathing me in light
Em F C
Hope that never ends

Little Musical Interlude:

same chords as verse. good section for a bit of the ol improvised solo. the key being G major (or E minor). Blues scale is always good, or any that you feel work

Pre-Chorus:

Em C G D
Pages turning, pages we were years from learning
Em C G D
Straight into the night our hearts were flung

Chorus:

 C G D C G D
Better bring your own redemption when you come
 C G D C
To the barricades of heaven where I m from
 C G D C G D
Better bring your own redemption when you come
 C G D C
To the barricades of heaven where I m from

END

Good song, enjoy it, I know I did
