

Stay
Jackson Browne

[Verse 1]

E                    A F#m D                    E                    A    F#m D E
(... People,) stay just a little bit longer.
                  A F#m D                    E                    A    F#m D E
We wanna play just a little bit longer.
                  A                    F#m D E
The promoter don t mind.
                  A                    F#m D E
And the union don t mind
                  A                    F#m                    D                    E
if we take a little time and we leave it all behind
                  F#m
sing one more song.
                  A F#m D                    E                    A    F#m D E
Oh, won t you stay just a little bit longer.
                  A                    F#m                    D                    E                    F#m
Please, please, please say, you will. Say you will.

[Interlude]

C# F#m B E

[Verse 2]

                  A F#m D                    E                    A    F#m D E
Oh, won t you stay just a little bit longer.
                  A F#m D                    E                    A    F#m D E
Oh, please, please stay just a little bit more. Hehehe,
                  A                    F#m D E
now the promoter don t mind.
                  A                    F#m D E
And the roadies don t mind,
                  A                    F#m                    D                    E
if we take a little time and we leave it all behind
                  F#m
sing one more song.

[Outro]
