I Gather your deeds and your possessions,
Whatever certainty you ve known,
Forget your heroes,
                                     F#5
You don t really need those last few lessons.
Stand in the open;
                                    F#5
The next voice you hear will be your own.
F#m
Well alright, they knew how they could hurt you,
And you let them cut you to the bone.
В5
But God forbid,
                                      F#5
You allow them to rid you of your virtue!
Forget their laughter;
                                   F#5
The next voice you hear will be your own.
The next voice you hear...
```

F#5

The next voice you hear will be your own.

```
Throw down your truth and check your weapons.

Don t look to see if you re alone,

Just stand your ground,

And don t turn around -- whatever happens.

Don t ask directions;

The next voice you hear will be your own.

The next voice you hear...

The next voice you hear...
