Em
When they said that you were beautiful
D
I said it there and then
C
I laid aside all resistance
D
Forgot to say amen
Em
And when you raised your hands to me
D
A glow therein I saw
C
A baby of the morning
Em
Was sleeping

Nature s law

C D Em
And it begins to seem like summer s almost gone
C D Em G Em G Em G
Like the wind that blow the leaves out on the lawn

Em
I determined that I loved you
D
You determined I am he
C
Determined both togethe
D
We meet our company
Em
And the feathers of the wild dove

D

Floating to the ground

C

Gliding through the branches

Em

Spinning slowly round

D

Em

As we wait in the mountains for the song

D

Em

That revives what s been between us all along

Em

In Cannes there was absurdity

D

In Nice there was the shore

C

In Monaco there were casinos

D

In Asia there was war

Em

And the pipers were American

D

The peaches fresh with cream

C

People with vibrations

Em

Just wild robots by some stream

D

Em

And now we grasp imaginary straws

C

D

Em

And shuffle through the sea with bright new claws

Em

If what we know can save us

D

Then it s time to make the try

C

Every time they try to make us

D

Servants of some lie

Em

The children born of bodies

D

In bold with pattern scheme

C

It s a funny, funny world you live in

Em

Til you learn that it s a dream

C

D

Em

Sea serpents are rockage made of clay

C D Em C D Em

Explaining how we were yesterday

Em

Still I said that you were beautiful

D

I said it there and then

C

I laid aside resistance

D

Forgot to say amen

Em

And when you raised your hands to me

D

A glow therein I see

C

The childhood of that beauty

Em

Which belongs to you and me

C

D

Em

And I realise that summer is never gone

D

Em

Like the wind that blow the leaves out on the lawn

C

Out on the lawn

D

Out on the lawn

Em

On the lawn
