Ghosts of all the things, that I've done wrong

Said there's a spot of paint and it just ain't the right shade
But it covers up the whole I made
Where I broke my wrist the night she left
And there's a lot of friends that I ain't seen in a lot of years
Some are still hangin' around
In old pictures I can't take down

He said some things they cast long shadows

That I never will outrun
Every day I do battle with

(refrão)

Yeah, I ve got a heart full of memories
Things I wish I d done differently
But when I m feelin weak they keep me strong
Ghosts of all the things, that I ve done wrong

He said he had to stop, he hadn t had a drop of anything
Stronger than coffee
In ten months, three weeks, and one long day
