G
I had a one night stand with my best friend s baby sister

Em
To this day he still won t speak to me

C
I pawned my grandpa s old guitar in college

D
For a case of beer and a tank of gasoline

G
I took a swing at my old man one Christmas

Em
I never dreamed that it would be his last

C
I wish mom had rung my neck when she caught me with those cigarettes

D
Which reminds me, I m down to my last pack

G Em
If I had a dime, for half the things I did

C
That didn t make no sense at all,

D
I d be livin a little higher on the hog

G Bm
If only I d a known, that later on down the road

Em D C
I d look back and not like what I see

Am D G
I d a changed a lot of things, startin with me

G
I called my brother everything I could think of

Em
The night he wouldn t bail me out of jail

C
I lost a job most folks round here would die for

D
By layin out all night and raisin hell

G

I let a woman that I love slip through my fingers

Em

Chalk another dumb move up to my foolish pride

C

I wasn't there standin' by the bed, when the preacher bowed his head

D

With the family, the day my grandma died
