Startin With Me Jake Owen Startin With Me Capo 4th Fret Intro: G Em I had a one night stand with my best friend s baby sister To this day he still won t speak to me I pawned my grandpa s old guitar in college For a case of beer and a tank of gasoline I took a swing at my old man one Christmas I never dreamed that it would be his last I wish mom had rung my neck when she caught me with those cigarettes Which reminds me, I m down to my last pack Em If I had a dime, for half the things I did That didn t make no sense at all, I d be livin a little higher on the hog BmIf only I d a known, that later on down the road I d look back and not like what I see I d a changed a lot of things, startin with me I called my brother everything I could think of The night he wouldn t bail me out of jail

I lost a job most folks round here would die for

By layin out all night and raisin hell

I let a woman that I love slip through my fingers
Chalk another dumb move up to my foolish pride
I wasn t there standin by the bed, when the preacher bowed his head
With the family, the day my grandma died

                                Εm
If I had a dime, for half the things I did
That didn t make no sense at all,
I d be livin a little higher on the hog
If only I d a known, that later on down the road
I d look back and not like what I see
I d a changed a lot of things, startin with me
