Jakob Dylan - Yonder Come the Blues

Capo 2nd

Intro

D G A

D

Moonlit girls hiding in the dunes

G A

Stars are falling like rockets in ruins

D

I m in the meadows where the roses bloom

G A

The orange blossoms shaking loose

D

Lovers talking like lovers do

G A

Summer s twilights had them fooled

D

Yonder come

Yonder come

G A

Yonder come the blues

D

Clap your hands, stomp your boots

G A

Yonder come the blues

D

My feet are planted in the waist-high reeds

G A

In the shadows in the shape of trees

D

Through the kingdom s smoky leaves

G A

You d be laughing too if you could see

D

On the outskirts long and lean

G A

Not baring gifts on a jet black steed

D

Yonder come

Yonder come

G A

Yonder come the blues

D

Ain t no rumor, it s simply true

G A

Yonder come the blues

G7 G

A dozen fingers and an easy touch

D

Throwing ashes in the pixie dust

Em

Locked and loaded right off the bus

A A7

It s got us numbered, the two of us

G

Sing that gospel and get your thrills

D

Raise the roof off and strike the bell

Em

You d be dancing too if you could tell

A A7

It s waking up and coming out of it s shell

D

Down the boulevard sirens pass

G A

Into the underworld deep and black

D

With brass and ladders, pick and axe

G A

Down the stairwell through the blast

D

Single file out, don t be last

G A

Not every one of us is coming back

D

Yonder come

Yonder come

G A

Yonder come the blues

D

Clap your hands, stomp your boots

G A

Yonder come the blues
