If only I could trust you d
                            Em
Rest your head and turn the light on
   G   Em
If only I could wish your kiss was not a falling star
   Am   Em
If only I was yours, the shoulder that you d wanna to cry on

If only you could pull me safely through these prison bars

And don t worry about the drink and drugs, I am through Am
If only I believed that was true
                                         F
We d be living all the dreams in a house with a view

If only, if only you knew how the voices of demons could drown out the truth
       Em
Now my one place of freedom is sleeping with you
   C   Am
If only, if only you knew
