James Blake

```
   A                Db     F#m     Db
Please fall down, testing sounds
       F#m                   E         A        F#m      Db
For the deaf and the forest cold
A           D          A
Trees in clouds, testing doubts
                    F#m     E       D            Bm  D
Trying hard not to be too bold
Dbm             B          Db
Crease your pride, telling lies
                                  D           F#
That, that you re not on your own
Bm          Em               A
Watching their faith in prayers
E               A    D          E                D      E
Will make you see your bones
