

Bartender
James Blunt

D
It s a little after midnight
A
There s a couple in the corner
E Fm
And I wonder what he said because she s crying
D
And I guess they won t remember
A
When they wake up in the morning
E
Fm
With the headache from the whiskey and the wine
D A
I know that I have said things I regret when I am sober
E
Fm
Cause we always hurt the ones we love the most
D A
I messed up and I know it if I hurt you girl I m sorry
E Fm
But it s good to see the girl I used to know
D A
We can dance but I can t dance
E Fm
Maybe we can stick to holding hands
D A E
Or should we raise a glass
Fm
And forget the past?
D A E
Fm
If we keep on drinking we re gon fall back in love
D A E Fm
So fill it up, fill it up
D A E
Fm
We must not be thinking cause we can t get enough
D A E Fm
So fill it up, fill it up
D A E
Bartender, can you pour some love?
Fm D A E Fm
Bartender, can you pour some love?
D A
We can talk about a future, we don t wanna reminisce
E

Fm

Because we both know it was me who got it wrong

D

But fuck it s good to see you

A

You look awesome and I miss you

E

Fm

Baby listen now, they re playing our song

D

A

We can dance but I can t dance

E

Fm

D

Maybe we can stick to holding hands

E

Fm

So fill it up, fill it up

D A E

Bartender, can you pour some love?

Fm

D A E

Bartender, can you pour some love?

D

E

Fm

And it s closing time, back to yours or mine?

D

E

Fm

After all this time, you still blow my mind

D

E

Fm

And it s closing time, back to yours or mine?

D

E

Fm

After all this time, after all this time

D

E

Fm

If we keep on drinking we re gon fall back in love

E
