

Postcards

James Blunt

VERSO 1 - PIANO:

E

Sunday sitting on your back porch

B

And I came on with a couple of chords

F#

And I played for you.

E

You let me keep you entertained

B

With stories I exaggerate

F#

That you know aren't true

C#m

And as you sit there making daisy chains

E

And I throw in a hand grenade

B

F#

And tell you how it is I really feel for you.

REFRÃO - UKULELE:

E

I'm sending postcards from my heart

B

F#

Your love for a postmark and then,

C#m

E

You know that you..... make me feel like

B

F#

We've been caught like kids in the school yard again.

C#m

E

And I can't keep it to myself

B

Can't spell it any better

F#

L.O.V.E forever

C#m

I hope you know that

E

I'm sending a postcard

B

F#

I don't care who sees what I've said

C#m

Or if the whole world knows what's in my head.

VERSO 2 - UKULELE:

E

We chased the sun til it got away

B

On a bicycle that your daddy made

F#

But not made for two

E

Then we sat out on your rocking chair

B

You with a flower in your hair

F#

That I found for you

C#m

But then Monday always comes around

E

And it s sad cause I can t see you now

B

F#

Want you to know you re always in my head

REFRÃO - UKULELE:

E

I m sending postcards from my heart

B

F#

E

I m sending a postcard

B

F#

I don t care who sees what I ve said

C#m

Or if the whole world knows what s in my head.

PONTE - PIANO:

C#m

You know sometimes it s hard to see

E

Or say the words that torture me

G#m

F#

But inside I know exactly how I feel

C#m

The things that I can t say out loud

E

I ll find a place to write it down

G#m

F#

I hope that they will find you in the end
