James Grant

[Intro]

N.C.

[Verse 1]

D G
I tried to make you happy
D G
Gave you everything I could
D G
I just wanted to hold you
D G
Wanted to take care of you
D G
Maybe you misunderstood
A C G
Maybe it was all just a bad dream
D A
What did I do to make you so mean?

[Verse 2]

D G
I thought that you were so beautiful
D G
And I tried to make you see
D G
When I was with you
D G
I was in a better place
D G
Where were you when you were with me?
A C G
Maybe it's some place I've never seen
D A
What did I do to make you so mean?
G
In the velvet darkness
D
Thought I'd found my wild orchid
G A
In the velvet darkness

[Verse 3]

D G
I thought that I had divined the shape of your soul
D G
But it's clear to me I will never know
D G

I will never know

A C G
But you showed me that Iâ€™m well out of that scene

D A
What did I do to you to make you so mean?

[Outro]

D G
There is no art, no art so dark

D G
Or mystery so deep

D G
As the human heart

D G
There is no art, no art so dark

D G
Or mystery so deep

D G
As the human heart

Continue playing D and G over lead guitar solo to end.
