

Too Late For Lullabies

James Morrison

[Intro] G# Fm Cm D#

G# Fm
It s a sad song that has no end
Cm D#
It s a bleeding heart that never mends
G# Fm
A minor miracle we can still pretend
Cm D#
After so long

G# Fm
Did the apple fall too far from the tree?
Cm D#
Did we get lost in the space in-between?
G# Fm
But the roots that we buried so deep
Cm D#
Will always be strong

G# Fm
Too late for lullabies
Cm D#
Too soon for it alright
G# Fm
Love takes its toll sometimes
Cm A# D#
Let s start a clean slate, mistakes are moments in time

G# Fm
For every time you ever raised up your hand
Cm D#
I ll give you mine to show you I understand
G# Fm Cm
You taught me to fly by learning to fall
D#
Ooo yeah

G# Fm
Love burns when it s in the blood
Cm D#
And God knows I burnt you the best I could
G# Fm
How can three words be so misunderstood?
Cm D#
We got it so wrong

G# Fm
 Yeah the greatest gift that you ever gave to me
 Cm D#
 You don t know your strength till you ve faced defeat
 G# Fm
 So when everything s just out of reach
 Cm D#
 Keep holding on

 G# Fm
 Too late for lullabies
 Cm D#
 Too soon for it alright
 G# Fm
 Love takes its toll sometimes
 Cm A# D#
 Let s start a clean slate, mistakes are moments in time

 G# Fm
 For every time you ever raised up your hand
 Cm D#
 I ll give you mine to show you I understand
 G# Fm Cm
 You taught me to fly by learning to fall

 Fm Cm
 We built a brick wall but it s all for nothing
 Fm D#
 Only bridges will cross this divide
 Fm Cm
 We both know this road leads to nowhere
 Fm G#
 There is nothing left for you to hide

 G# Fm
 Too late for lullabies
 Cm D#
 Too soon for it alright
 G# Fm
 Love takes its toll sometimes
 Cm A# D#
 Let s start a clean slate, mistakes are moments in time
