

Transamerica

James Parr

[Intro with harmonica: D / G / A x2]

[Verse 1]

D G A D
She came from California on the West Coast of the land
G A
San Francisco
D G A D
And he came from the furthest windy shoreline in the East
G A
Massachusetts

[Chorus 1]

G
They met right in the middle
D
At somebody's wedding
G Asus A
They don't even remember who it was

[Verse 2]

D G A D
She was a legendary surfer on the waves
G A
Of the wild Pacific
D G A D
And he was a fisherman who'd learned his father's trade
G A
On the rough Atlantic

[Chorus 2]

G
They met in South Dakota
D
At somebody's wedding
G Asus A
They won't ever remember who it was
G
It was love at first sight

D

But they both missed their oceans dearly

G

Asus A

They knew this one night would be all there was [Instrumental]

D G A x2

[Verse 3]

D G A D

Next day, she said "think of me when you're out on the sea,

G A

And I'll think of you".

D G A D

And he said, "guess we'll always keep the Prairies in our hearts".

G A

Boy was he right

[Chorus 3]

G

Cause when they flew away

D

In opposite directions

G Asus A

They knew their love was all they'd ever need

G

So when they got back home

D

They set out on the highway

G Asus A

That would lead back to where it all began

[Bridge]

D

TransAmerica

Em Bm A

Stretching out beneath the endless skies

G A

From coast to coast

D Bm

Through misty forests and wide open spaces

Em A D G A D G A

Across the great heartland tonight

[Verse 4]
