

Rainbows Dead End

James Reyne

James Reyne has hardly any tabs posted anywhere so i thought this was a good one to enjoy!

James Reyne- The Rainbow s Dead End

Standard Tuning

Intro D A E E

D A E E

Star-crossed junkie misfits on the run

D A E E

Some expensive wardrobe, a car, a gun for fun

D A E E

They took her valise, a portmanteau, such a civilised way to go

G C G D

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

Peel back that velvet rope and come inside

There s Jungle Jim at Mr. Chow s, with his mail-order bride

The higher that monkey climbs that tree, the more of his fat ass you ll see

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

F#m G A D

If we get separated,

F#m G A

I ll meet you there

F#m G A D

In our little hideaway,

F#m G A

Our pied-a-terre

Last year s model stranded in the bar

With some NRA convention, itchy fingers, whiskey in the jar

Through this gin palace, Alice wander, absinthe makes this tart grow fonder

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

Hotel, motel drifters one and all

Lie like dead men down in rows, against the Bondi Beach sea wall

The mirror smeared with wasted chance and nicotine stained romance

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

This must be the rainbow s dead-end

This must be the rainbow s dead-end