Just knocking round the zoo
On a Thursday afternoon
There s bars on all the windows
And they re counting upon the spoons

D

If I m feeling edgy

A

There s a chick who s paid to be my slave

E

But she ll hit me with a needle

D

If she thinks I m trying to misbehave

Verse 1:

Now the keepers trying to cool me
Says I m bound to be alright
I know that he can t fool me
Cause I m putting him uptight

I can feel him getting edgy
Every time I make a sudden move

E

And I can hear him celebrating

D

When I finally up and leave the room

(Chorus)

Verse 2:

Now my friends they all come to see me
They point at me and stare
He s just like the rest of us
So what s he doing in there?
Now they hide in their movie theaters
Drinking juice and keeping tight
Better watch out for the bright light baby

Because they re certain about one thing:
The Zoo s no place to spend the night, no

(Chorus)
