Soldiers James Taylor

A -

The was just after sun-rise and down by the sea tem bm G A and down on the sand flats where nothing will grow D C G A and come drumming and footsteps like out of a dream tem bm A - where the golden green waters come in.

Just nine lucky soldiers had come through the night

Em Bm G A

half of them wounded and barely alive

D C G A

Just nine out of twenty was a-headed for home

I remember quite clearly when I got out of bed
C G Em A G A.

I said, Oh, good morning. What a beautiful day.
