Cavalier James Vincent McMorrow Е Speak until the dust Settles in the same specific place Light refused to go F# Drink it from a cast and iron plate Instead of cold milk G#m Was offered unripe Instead of silence Considered craven Ε Nothing made it seem Hidden where the aging soil was pure Pressed against the crease Mountains become fragrant at the source C#m How can you stand this G#m Exotic angle I read it somewhere That they would lie still Е I remember how cloth hung G#m Flexing with the forest clung Half waist and high raised arms Kicking at the slightest form G#m

I remember my first love

I remember my first love

I don t know. clap for this bit. if anyone can suggest anything.
Unrelied i was called
Missing teeth out of favour
Nickel beach it was all
Gathering by the sundial
I woke hard
I woke heavy
For the half way stop
Five whole hours in
When i woke hard
I woke heavy with the live or parts
I remember how cloth hung
G#m
Flexing with the forest clung
Half waist and high raised arms
Kicking at the slightest form
C#m
                                  G#m
I remember my first love
I remember my first love
I remember my first love
