

Follow You Down To The Red Oak Tree
James Vincent McMorrow

[Intro]

Em

[Verse 1]

Em C Em
follow you down to the red oak tree
G Am Em
as the air moves thick through the hollow reeds Am C Em
will you wait for me there until someone comes Am D Em
to carry me, carry me down

[Verse 2]

Em C Em
see i have not i have not grown cold G Am Em
i have stole from men who have stole from those Am C Em
with their arms so thin and their skin so old Am D Em
but you are young, you are young, you are young

[Bridge]

Bm C G
then somebody laughs like itâ€™s all just for hell
Bm C G as though we could not be saved from the depth of the well Am C Em
but the cloth that i make is a cloth you can sell C D
to pay for the gossamer seed

[Verse 3]

Em C Em
names get carved in the red oak tree
G Am Em
of the ones who stay and the ones who leave Am C Em
i will wait for you there with these cindered bones
Am D Em
so follow me follow me down
Am D Em
follow me follow me down
Am D Em
follow me follow me down
Am D Em

follow me follow me down
