James Vincent McMorrow " From the woods

From his video song: <http://www.jamesvmcmorrow.com/>

Bm

From the woods, from the woods. They are coming from the woods

G

Bm

Riding horses cloaked in grey. Make their way, to my door

G

Lay their boots upon my floor, Wash their hands and start to pray

Bm

But I am gone, I am not there. I have followed mountain bears

G

Bm

To a cave of deepest tome. There I wait, by the mouth

G

As the smoke it flushes out then I ll slowly drag one home

G

All these things are ever lost. Stillness has brought my love to cost

Bm

From the woods, from the woods. Once a vision from the woods

G

Bm

At a point between two tracks bound by tape, and by wire

G

Bruised and beaten in the fire. So the metals faded black

Bm

Newer ropes, stronger nets have us plumbing further depths

G

Bm

For the wolves weâ€™ll never be. Should we go, would we die

G

If the weight it was to slide, drag our secrets to the sea

I taste the sulfur on my breath. I see the blood pool on the step

Bm

The moon so thick, the wounds so fresh and all is well....

From the woods, from the woods, they are coming. From the woods!! (Ahhh) 4x
