[Verse 1]

Em7 G
Burn slow, burning up the back wall
Em7 G
Long roads, where the city meets the sky
Em7 G
Most days, most days stay the sole same
Em7 G
Please stay, for this fear it will not die

[Chorus]

C G
If I had a boat, I would sail to you
 D Em
Hold you in my arms, ask you to be true
 C G
Once I had a dream, it died long before
 D Em (Em)
Now I m pointed north, hoping for the shore

[Verse 2]

Em7 G
Down low, down amongst the thorn rows
Em7 G
Weeds grow, through the lilies and the vine
Em7 G
Birds play, try to find their own way
Em7 G
Soft clay, on your feet and under mine

[Chorus]

C G
If I had a boat, I would sail to you
D Em
Hold you in my arms, ask you to be true
C G
Once I had a dream, it died long before
D Em (Em7)
Now I m pointed north, hoping for the shore

[Bridge]

C
Splitting at the seams
G
Heaving at the brace
D
Sheets all billowing
Em7
The breaking of the day
C
Sea is not my friend
G
And everyone conspires
D
Still I choose to swim
Em7
Slip beneath the tide

C
Once I had a dream
G
Once I had a hope
D
That was yesterday
Em7
Not so long ago
C
This is not the end

This is just the world

Such a foolish thing

Such an honest girl
