

Back To Caroline

Jamey Johnson

Verse 1

D A
He said the storm is getting stronger
Bm A G A
as he climbed inside my truck
D A
I m headed back to carolina
Bm A G A
Gods will and any luck
D A
He told me how he left his family
Bm A G A
so many years ago
D A G A
And he d seen the whole world on the shoulders
Bm A G A
but now it s time to go back home

Chorus

D A
and he said this road goes on forever
Bm A G A
I ve been travelin all my life
D A
and I ve seen the rain I ve felt the thunder
Bm A G A
but it never changed my mind
D A Bm A-G A
I m going back to caroline

Verse 2

I dropped him off at the state line then I thought about my life and everything I left behind me two children and my wife
I left them waiting for a phone call well that was twenty days ago now I m in for the long haul and it s time to go back home

Chorus II

and this damn road keeps getting longer
I ve been travelin it sometime and I ve seen the rain, and felt the thunder...roll on and it never changed my mind
Im going back to caroline
