

Living On A Song

Jamey Johnson

G D C G
I have slept on satin sheets, dined with kings and wine so sweet,
C G C D
Made my bed out in the street, living for a song.

G D C G
I spent a lifetime on the road, like desperadoes chasing gold,
C G C D
Iâ€™ve been bought and Iâ€™ve been sold, living for a song.

CHORUS:

Lifeâ€™s so full of melodies, with words that rhyme and harmonies,
Until I write mine, Iâ€™ll always be living for a song.

SPOKEN:

I came to town a long time ago, and itâ€™s really been good to me as you all know,
But all of us rhyme runners and word hunters have some things that weâ€™ve been through,
So I wrote this song, hoping I could tell some of them to you.

SUNG:

I have slept on lifeâ€™s highway, muddy tears painting my face,
A rhyme or two was my big payday, living for a song.
Using words for my lifeline, forsaking all just for a rhyme,
Building steps I know I canâ€™t climb, living for a song.

Repeat CHORUS

Till I write mine Iâ€™ll always be living for a song
