

Mowin Down The Roses

Jamey Johnson

Mowin Down the Roses - Jamey Johnson - That Lonesome Song
Standard Tuning

Intro: A

A

Down in Mississippi 

A

It s a perfect time of year

 A

To break out the jumper cables

 A

And try to crank this ol John Deere 

A

I can t wait to fire it up 

A

And put er into gear

 A

I know I should be hurtin

A

But I m smiling ear to ear

A

Cuz I m mowin down the roses

A

I m mowin down the roses

 D7

I m mowin down the roses 

A

That you planted in our yard

A

I poured out your purty perfume 

A

Straight down the toilet bow

l A

And I ripped your face straight off the wall 

Left nothing but some holes 

A

I loaded up your closets 

A

Into fifteen garbage bags

 A

And I smoked with your potpourri 

A

On a burn pile in the back

A

Cuz I m mowin down the roses

 A

I m mowin down the roses 

D7

I m mowin down the roses 

A

That you planted in our yard

A

Down in Mississippi

 A

Its getting perfectly clear

 A

That anything you used to love 

A

Just aint gonna grow round here

D7

I m mowing down the roses 

A

That you planted in our yard

A

I m mowin down the roses 

A

I m mowin down the roses

 A

I m mowin down the roses
