Mowin Down the Roses - Jamey Johnson - That Lonesome Song
Standard Tuning
Intro: A
Α
Down in Mississippi

It s a perfect time of year

A
To break out the jumper cables

A
And try to crank this ol John Deere

I can t wait to fire it up

And put er into gear

A
I know I should be hurtin
But I m smiling ear to ear
Cuz I m mowin down the roses
I m mowin down the roses

D7
I m mowin down the roses

                                        Α
That you planted in our yard
I poured out your purty perfume

Straight down the toilet bow
1
And I ripped your face straight off the wall

Left nothing but some holes

I loaded up your closets

Into fifteen garbage bags

And I smoked with your potpourri
```

On a burn pile in the back

Α
Cuz I m mowin down the roses

A
I m mowin down the roses

D7
I m mowin down the roses

That you planted in our yard
Down in Mississippi

Its getting perfectly clear

A
That anything you used to love

Just aint gonna grow round here
    D7
I m mowing down the roses

                                 Α
That you planted in our yard
I m mowin down the roses

I m mowin down the roses

A
I m mowin down the roses
```
