

The Guitar Song
Jamey Johnson

D
Im just a guitar in the pawn shop on the corner
G
And Im waiting for someone to play me now and then
A
My strings are kinda rusty and I m a little dusty
D oh but you d be to if you ve been where i ve been
D
I ve dont some shows with haggard back in 1967
G E
now im dying for someone to play me back home

(chours)

G A D G
I m just a guitar in the pawn shop on the corner
D A D
Hey come on by and listen to my song

D,G,D

D
I ve seem atleast a million of those tiny smoke bar rooms
G
and i ve help to heal some heartaches
A
and i ve helped to sell some beer
D
and the last on to help me
A
just couldn t wait to sell me
D
for 20 dollars and left me hanging here
D
But i dream about the spot light
D
And the roaring of the people
G A
And i wonder if I m ever gonna hear em sing along

(Chours)

G A D G
I m just a guitar in the pawn shop on the corner
D A D
Hey come on by and listen to my song

D,G,A,D

D

I ve got alot of memories

and a song or two left in me

G

and some day someone will pick me up

E

and play me back home

(Chours)
