

Black Crow
Jamiroquai

Just a few things:

Im not 100% on the chords, i just assumed they would be right. I didnt include the electric bit coz im on holiday with only my acoustic. The main riff is played throughout the song, and the outro is right at the very end. Unfortunately, apart from the intro this song isn t very good by itself. It may sound a bit better on a 12 string which would give the sound something more solid. Or you could improvise by playing the string above the one you ar playing, kinda like in the intro. Or play around with the chords. Also the Em is first just strummed once slowly, then the following times plucked with three fingers and your thumb. Any additions are welcome.
