Janove Ottesen - Francis Lonely Nights

Capo: 2nd fret

Intro: D - Em - D

Francis left for the countryside

Em D

He d been living in the city for years

Em D

And to him it didn t matter where

Em D

As long as there was no one there

Em G

And the woman that he left in tears

is no longer his

Break: D Em D D Em D

Then, he got himself a brand new life

Got all he needed from the grocery store

Knew all the names of the newspaper boys

Thought he would never be needing more

And there was no one who could bring him home

He was forever gone

Break: D Em D D Em D D Em D D Em D

He had lonely days, he had lonely nights

All he wanted was to put out his lights

And I know he was afraid of heights

And I know he knew, it wasn t right

But he remembered to pack his gun

Now the job is done

Yeah he remembered to pack his gun

Now the job is done

And I am Francis son

his only one

D Em D
