

Blind

Jars Of Clay

Okay, this is NOT all of the song, I didn't have enough time for it (yet), this is mostly just the intro, verses, and chorus.

There are obviously two guitars in this song but I'm only putting the tab down for one (and SOME parts of the background guitar)

Intro:

|-----0-----0-----0-----0-----|
|--3-----3-----3-----3-----|
|-----4-----4-----4-----4-----|
|-----|-----|-----|-----|
|--0-----0-----0-----0-----|

Verse: (play 8X)

Cynical...

|-----0-----|
|--3-----3-----|
|-----4-----4-----0---0---|
|-----4-----|
|--0-----|
|-----|

There's a slight change in the guitar playing at the end of each verse but it sounds ok if you just keep playing that.

Chorus: (play twice)

Bli_____nd

Words...

|-----|-----|
|--3-----3-----|--3-----|
|-----4-----4-----4-----|-----4-----4-----|
|-----4-----4-----4-----|--4-----4-----4-----|
|--0-----|-----|

(Not sure about the above

part)

That's just about all I've gotten to so far, I'm pretty sure most of it's pretty accurate except for the part I said wasn't.

I'll try getting them rest down some other time.

Lyrics:

Cynical, it's just your way

You play the doubting thomas
Feel the scars and wipe the stains.

So you fight, and retreat
And talk yourself out of believing
In any peace that you can t see

Blind words you call
Blind words will fall

Logical, you can t find
Any reason to believe in love,
you are blind

Crucify, and deny
Pass the blame and burn the mission
Till dust remains and wash your hands

Blind words you call
Blind words will fall
