(the intro riff is played through most of the song, but this is the chord progression if you want to just strum, or use a different instrument.)
(all chords relative to capo)

F#m                    G
I don t have to hear it

A            Bm
If I don t want to

F#m            G
I can drown this out

A                    Bm
Pull the curtains down on you

F#m            G
It s a heavy world

A                    Bm                    F#m
It s too much for me to care

G
If I close my eyes

A                    Bm
It s not there

CHORUS:

F#m                    G
With my headphones on

A                    Bm
With my headphones on

Piano part:

E|-----|-----|

F#m G

We watch television

A Bm

But the sound is something else

F#m G

Just a song played against the drama

A Bm

So the hurt is never felt

F#m G

I take in the war fires

A Bm

And I m chilled by the current events

F#m G

It s so hopeless

A Bm

But there s a pop song in my head

(CHORUS)

BRIDGE (play intro riff throughout)

At the tube stop

You sit down across from me

(I can see you looking back at me)

I think I know you

By the sad eyes that I see

And I wanna tell you

(It s a heavy world)

Everything will be ok

But you wouldn t hear it

(I don t wanna have to hear it)

So we go our separate ways

(CHORUS) (The lyrics below are sung over the chorus, except the last line which is played with the intro riff)

I don t wanna be the one who

Tries to figure it out

I don t need another reason

I should care about you

You don t wanna know my story

You don t wanna own my pain

We re living in a heavy, heavy world

And there s a pop song in my head

yeah there s a pop song in my head

Yeah it s a heavy world

Oh no, I don t wanna have to hear it

Heavy world

I don t want to have to hear it
