[Verse]

G X 5

G

A couple guys in first class on a flight

Bm

From new York to Los Angeles,

Bm

Kinda making small talk killing time,

C

Flirting with the flight attendants,

Am

30, 000 feet above, could be Oklahoma,

G

Just a bunch of square cornfields and wheat farms,

Bm

Man it all looks the same,

Bm

Miles and miles of back roads and highways,

Connecting little towns with unknown names,

Am

D

Who d want to live down there in the middle of nowhere,

[Chorus]

Em

C

They ve never drove through Indiana,

G

Met the men who plowed that earth,

D

Bm

Planted that seed, busted his ass for you and me,

Em

C

Or caught a harvest moon in Kansas,

D C

They d understand why god made those fly over states

[Verse]

G I bet that mile long Santa Fe freight train engineer s seen it all Bm
Bm Just like that flatbed cowboy stacking US steel on a 3-day haul C
C Road and rails under their feet Am
D Yeah that sounds like a first class seat

[Chorus]

Em On the plains of Oklahoma C
G Where the windshield sunset in your eyes
D Like a watercolor painted sky Bm
Em You d think heavens doors have opened C
D You ll understand why god made
C Those fly over states

[Solo]

Em, C, G, D, Bm

[Verse]

E Take a ride across the badlands C
G Feel that freedom on your face
D Breathe in all that open space Bm
Em Meet a girl from Amarillo C
D You ll understand why god made
C Why you d want to plant your stakes
G D In those fly over states

[Outro]

EM, C, G, D, Bm
