G   C
I walk a hard line winding road
G   C
Don t really know where it s gonna go
G
Seems like trouble s my best friend
          C
Soon as I get out, I m back in again
           G   C
It s a wonder, I ain t all alone

                      G C
 Cause it ain t easy
                 G C
No, It ain t easy
             G C   G C G C
It ain t easy, Lovin me

G   C
Don t why know I do the things I do
G   C
Must be I love to light the fuse
G   C
Stand back and watch it crash and burn and turn into ash
                        G
Just like it ain t nothin
                              C
She ain t something I can lose

                      G C
 Cause it ain t easy
                 G C
No, It ain t easy
             G C   G C
It ain t easy, Lovin me

G   C
She s the brick by brick that built this house

```
G                            C
Without her it would all fall down
G                                  C
So now she finds the faith and the strength to believe
G                          C
Don t know why she sticks around

              G  C
 Cause it ain t easy
            G  C
No, It ain t easy
      G  C            G  C
It ain t easy, Lovin  me

              G  C
 Cause it ain t easy
            G  C
No, It ain t easy
      G  C            G  C
It ain t easy, Lovin  me
```
