VERSE2

I dig in my heels and try to slow this down

I want my life to revolve around everything you do oh but that s all up to you everything good seems to go so fast it s kinda like one big party crash you weren t counting on one day your here you re gone baby all I wanna do is lay right here and hope it all don t disappear

CHORUS

It s your world and I m just in it aint no other way to spin it, lucky me just being there when I get to hold you I m just here to love you girl it s your world and I m just passing through

being
passing through

I m just here to love you girl it s your world and I m just passing through
