They Dont Make Em Like That Anymore Jason Blaine

(Capo on 3)

Intro.: $|(\mathbf{D})| |(\mathbf{Bm/D})(\mathbf{A/D})| \times 2$

- (D)He still combs his hair like Elvis, pays cash for everything
- (G) And he ll only drive a Chevy (Em) and thinks Alan (A) Jackson s king
- (\mathbf{D}) He knows everyone by name at the local $(\mathbf{F}\#)$ hardware (\mathbf{G}) store They don t $(\mathbf{E}m)$ make em like (\mathbf{A}) that anymore (\mathbf{D})
- (D) Up with the sun each mornin , hardly missed a day of work
- (G) Summer 1957, (Em) he helped build that (A) Lutheran church
- (\mathbf{D}) Believes a man should work all week but save Sunday $(\mathbf{F}^{\#})$ for the (\mathbf{G}) Lord They don t (\mathbf{Em}) make em like (\mathbf{A}) that anymore (\mathbf{D})

(Chorus)

Standin (G) shoulder to shoulder with him (A)now, I still feel small And (D)I m still lookin (F#m/C#)up to him (Bm)like he s ten feet (A)tall

- (\mathbf{G}) There s somethin about that generation, (\mathbf{A}) these days I think we need em
- (D) More than we (F#m/C#) ever did before,
- (Bm) (A) but they don t (G) make Em like (A) that anymore (D)
- (D) He married his sweet Mary June 1955
- (G) He goes on and on about her, her (Em) casseroles, her (A) clear blue eyes
- (\mathbf{D}) He still helps her with her coat, still opens (\mathbf{F} #)her car (\mathbf{G})door They don t (\mathbf{E} m)make em like (\mathbf{A})that anymore (\mathbf{D})

(Chorus)

Standin (G) shoulder to shoulder with him (A)now, I still feel small And (D)I m still lookin (F#m/C#)up to him (Bm)like he s ten feet (A)tall

- (G) There s somethin about that generation, (A) these days I think we need em
- (D) More than we (F#m/C#) ever did before,
- (Bm) (A) but they don t (G) make em like (A) that anymore

Inst.: |(D)(C#)|(Bm)(A)|(G) |(A)

(Chorus)

- (G) There s somethin about that generation, (A) these days I think we need em
- (D) More than we (F#m/C#) ever did before, (Bm) (A) yeah, that s for (Em) sure But they don t (G) make em like (A) that anymore (D)
- (D) He still combs his hair like Elvis, pays cash for (G) everything (D)