

Comal County Blue
Jason Boland

Comal County Blue
by Jason Boland and the Stragglers

Capo 2

Intro: D

D
I guess it finally rained,

A
it s down to 85.

G
I ll bet the fish are bitin ,

D A
Down by the riverside.

D
It s the only place made colder

A
Around here in the middle of June

G
By the endless string of strangers

A D
Brought by the summer moon.

D
My brother moved off to Houston

A
And most my friends stay gone.

G
I need to pay my taxes,

D A
I don t like to mow my lawn.

D
I have an honest habbit

A
Of bein fine wherever I am,

G
But the way this water s risin

A D
I need to get up above the dam.

G
Tonight I m rollin up north

D A Bm

Back to where I paid the due,

A

Tonight the answer s Austin

D

For the Comal County Blue.

Interlude:

A, D

D

There s one roll in my ashtray,

A

I m takin Hunter Road

G

Out by Riley s Tavern

D

A

Where my liquor loved to flow.

D

We ll skip around San Marcos,

A

Then Stop and tell Doug hello.

G

Second gear up congress,

A

D

You know I like to take it slow.

G

Tonight I m rollin up north

D

A

Bm

Back to where I paid the due,

A

Tonight the answer s Austin

D

For the Comal County Blue.

Solo:

G D A Bm A D

D

The one right beside me

A

Helped me make it throught that town.

G

We moved out to the country,

D

A

Then we bought a wedding gown

D

But we still know our ways,

A

We learned those lessons well.

G

Back around the turn of the century,

A

D

From a one room roadside cell.

G

Yeah, Tonight I m rollin up north

D

A

Bm

Back to where I paid the due,

A

Tonight the answer s Austin

D

For the Comal County Blue.

G

Oh, Tonight I m rollin up north

D

A

Bm

Back to where I paid the due,

A

Sometimes the only answer s Austin

D

For the Comal County Blue.

Outro:

A D

This was my first attempt at tabs to anything...make changes if you want. I couldn't lyrics or chords anywhere for this song so I just took matters into my own hands. I just to play this song about my home here in Comal County Texas. (I live about a mile off Hunter Road).

Happy strumming!

James from New Braunfels, TX

mrjimbob12@hotmail.com