

Autotune

Jason Chen

This song came out yesterday, after being teased for about 3 months. Jason Chen is amazing! Both at songwriting and singing. Enjoy!

Capo 2

B
I was young, lost, stupid,
F# G#m E
Didn't know what I was doing wrong
B
Just eat, sleep, feeling free
F# G#m E
Then I'd party all night long
B F#
But I would never get too worried
G#m E
'Bout the little things in life
B F#
I knew I'd won the lottery
G#m E
Cause Baby can't you see

B F#
Just thinking about you as I sing this song
G#m E
Cause when you're around I can do no wrong
B F#
And I'm never too sharp, never flat, Girl imagine that
G#m E B
You always know how to bring me right back
F# G#m
When my pitch is off, you make it alright
E B F# G#m
When it's all so wrong, you're my auto tune
E B
You can be my auto tune

B F# G#m E
Now I found my way girl, ever since you came along

B F# G#m E
As I listen to the radio, pumpin to my catchy song

B F# G#m E
You mean more than a Grammy and all the money in world

B F#
Every time that I drift off-key girl

G#m E
You continue to save me
